Transfer of Shares

Use this form to make a gift or transfer of shares to an individual or a non-profit organization, or for re-registration (divorce/separation, individual to trust, etc.). Since the transfer of shares does not result in a sale of securities, the donor does not incur a taxable event. Please consult with your tax advisor for gift or inheritance questions. This form is not to be used for Individual Retirement Accounts (IRAs), 403(b) retirement accounts, or Coverdell Education Savings Accounts. If you have any questions, please call 1(800) 372-7827 between 8am and 6pm ET M-F.

* There is a special rule under the estate tax that allows the executor (the person in charge of the estate) to elect a different valuation date in certain cases. If the estate qualifies for this election, and the executor makes the election, the valuation date is six months after the date of death. The principal reason for making this election is to reduce the amount of estate tax that must be paid. But the election also has an effect on income tax, because it means you will now use the later date to determine your basis.
