Important Information about procedures for opening a new account. To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents. For certain entities, such as trusts, estates, corporations, partnerships, or other organizations, identifying documentation is also required. Your account may be restricted and/or closed if we cannot verify your information. We will not be responsible for any losses or damages resulting from any failure to provide this information, or from any restriction placed upon, or closing of, your account.

Inactive Account Notice You should be aware that if no activity occurs in your account within the time period specified by applicable state law, your account may be closed and the proceeds transferred to the appropriate state.
